Judges 'Pass the Buck' to Spectators When Close Decision Comes in Harness Class.

By GURNEY C. GUE.

Brighter skies yesterday brought best of her inches in this country and William H. Moore's $100,000 Horse Show in the armory of Squardon A. Though officially known as the Na-

Show in the armory of Squardon A. Though officially known as the National Horse Show, it is not out of place to call it Judge Moore's, for almost everybody identified with the big exhibition of horses, fashion and society, knows that the father of the United States Steel Corporation and of half a dozen other giant industrial enterprises is the man who makes the horse show go.

Ever since the death of Alfred G. Vanderbilt the Judge, as he is affectionately known to horse fanciers, though he never held a judicial position, has authorized his young friend Robert A. Fairbairn and associates of the National Horse Show Association to go ahead and give the annual exhibition in the best style possible and send the bill to him if there is any deficit after it is over. Deficits are likely to occur when the setting for the horse show costs about $40,000, as it did this year, but Mr. Moore has it did this year, but Mr. Moore has first clas show. During the war, as is well known, he not only paid the bills, but proposed to his fellow directors that they donate the entire gross receipts of the horse show to charities connected with the war. And this year he moved to increase the deficit connected with the war. And this year he moved to increase the deficit giving the receipts of the tea room uction of Washington's home at

He won two blues, and as he drove his pets around the ring flying their winning ribbons his face was wreathed in smiles.

They are giant grays and it would be hard to tell them apart. The cock horse, which followed, also is gray, and as fine a stepper as any of the four which dragged the beautifully equipped coach around the ring. As it was, Mr. Moore's third victory in the event the cup becomes his permanent property.

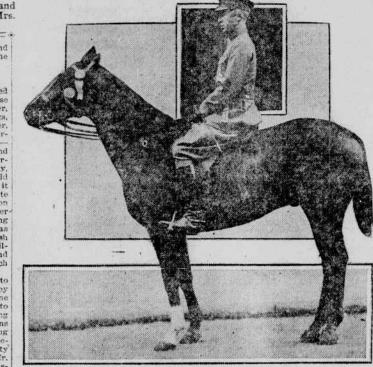

The mounted policec of the city gave an exhibition at the night session and were warmly received by the crowd which stood a dozen deep around the ring and filled almost all of the seats except those in the boxes.

Almost all the box holders were there, but they spent most of their time watching the coontests from the members' box or the tea room. The seats in the boxes are a triffe too low and with hundreds on the promeenade the view of the ring is obstructed.

The policemen's horses went through a host of manœuvres perfectly before they were lined up for inspection. Captain, ridden by Patrolman David Tunstall of Traffic A, was awarded premier honors, with Ninrod, ridden by Patrolman alton Bolston, second and Colonel, ridden by Sergeant Daniel Collins, third. Mayor Hylan was expected to review them, but at the last minute he telephoned he would be unable to attend.

Assurances of improved transportation facilities from both Baltimore and Washcilities from both Baltimore and Washington were fulfilled, to the satisfaction of a large crowd who witnessed Tippity Witchet's victory in the Prince George Handleap and six other thrilling events. Form was well observed in most instances, despite the heavy condition of a track that was fast responding to the treatment of warm sun and gentle winds. Tipnity Witchet's score was accomreatment of warm sun and gentle winds.

Tippity Witchet's score was accomplished with the same determination that has marked so many of his other efforts over the track in recent years. He was leniently treated by the handicapper, though he carried topweight of 115 pounds. An odds-on favorite, he followed closely behind Bunga Buck's pace through the middle running, with Slippery Elim in third position, well in adthrough the middle running, with Slip-pery Elm in third position, well in ad-vance of Super, Dresden and Mock Orange, the only other starters. Round-ing the turn Bunga Buck carried Tippity Witchet extremely wide as the latter staged his challenge. That was quickly successful, for Bunga Buck hung out distress signals when Marinelli went to the whip at the final eighth and Tippity Witchet, in further response to Johnson's the whip at the final eighth and Tippity Witchet, in further response to Johnson's call, moved away to an eventual one length and a half victory. Bunga Buck had little serious contention for second honors. Super came from a long way back through the stretch to overtake the tring Slippery Elm and so accounted for third. The others were beaten off.

Commander Ross's Oriole defeated some smart sprinters over the six and a half furlongs of the Oriole Purse. The opportunity could not have suited him better had it been made to order. Oriole better had it been made to order. Orione showed vast improvement over his last Pimilico effort by breaking kindly and racing truly in the lead throughout.

Quick Run took the opener easily over twelve others of the biggest field of the day in the opener. Miss Colin fell extremely lame during the running an was later reported destroyed. Mountain was later reported destroyed. Mountain Rose II. and Austral, the two choices in the final over the mile and a quarter route, had the issue between them through the stretch and Mountain Rose II. proved the gamer.

Several chartered cars carried a host of New Yorkers and returned them to town quickly after the last race.

On Saturday and thereafter until November 26 the first race will be called at 1 P. M.

Patterns as rich as the fabrics are fine.

True, they all look expensive, but some are downright moderate.

Down-to-date in price and up-to-date in style.

To safeguard healthwarmer underwear. Shirts and drawers or union suits. Sizes for every size of man or boy.

To add to your collection -new Winter shirts and four-in-hands that entice both eye and pocketbook. Abundant stocks.

To gladden the handgloves galore. Plenty of those soft pliable Mochas which since the war have been hard to get.
